

Basis of Our Work

Operation of Steinbeis Transfer Center of East-West Cooperation is based on the following:

Orientation towards the customer

We organize our project work in accordance with the customer's interests. Satisfying Your needs is the objective of our activities.

Competence

As a leading consultant in the sphere of cooperation of enterprises in countries of Eastern and Western Europe, we must possess wider and deeper knowledge in the sphere of our specialization, than our customers and, particularly, our rivals have. We would like you to rely on our knowledge and experience.

Efficiency

Conceptions and solutions, developed by us, are closely connected to practical activity. Feasibility is a key factor, which determines the project's success.

Confidentiality

In the course of project development, we observe absolute privacy and confidentiality. We communicate to the third party no more than the information, publicly announced by the customer.

Tradition
