

Romania appoints a new national coordinator

The new national coordinator for the realization of the EU Danube Strategy is ambassador Lucian Fatu. The former coordinator ambassador Viorel Ardeleanu was discharged in a ceremony. We thank Mister Ardeleanu for the very successful cooperation in the last few years.

18th April 2012: The new coordinator was presented in the presence of the Minister for European Affairs Leonard Orban and the state secretary Luminita Odobescu. Mister Ardeleanu and Mister Fatu held a meeting of the Romanian 'Advisory Board' of the Danube Strategy together before. Within that meeting Jürgen Raizner, director of the Steinbeis-Danube-Center and vice president of the Council of the Danube City and Regions was called up to the leadership of the working committee communication and promotion.

Working Committees

18.04.2012: Romania completes the Advisory Board of the National Forum for the realization of the Danube Strategy by adding the following working committees:

- Building Prosperity
- Connecting the Danube
- Protecting the Environment
- Strengthening the Danube Region
- Funding and Implementing
- Communication and Promotion

Nominated for the leadership of the committee for Communication and Promotion was Jürgen Raizner. The decision will follow in May.

Last update 08. August, 2013