

Agreement signing in Ufa

Steinbeis and Bashtechinform have established strategic partnership for innovative development of economy of the Republic of Bashkortostan. Key areas include arrangement of innovative scientific fact-based projects as well as education and advanced expert training.

Due to its importance the Cooperation is under the protection of the Ministry of Industry, Investment and Innovation Policy of the Republic of Bashkortostan and Academy of Science of the Republic of Bashkortostan.

Bashtechinform is a technological research and technical information complex of the Bashkir Academy of Science. Steinbeis Transfer Center has access to the Bashkir technologies and rapidly developing market. Attractive business opportunities are offered to the German enterprises in the Republic rich in raw materials.

You may find current enquiries and business opportunities from Bashkortostan here.

Republic of Bashkortostan

Bashkortostan is one of the richest republics of Russia. The Republic has its own oil deposit and well-developed petrochemical industry. Somewhat to the North of the capital Ufa the largest European petrochemical complex is situated. 1 million Republic citizens of 4 live in Ufa.

Loction in Russia

You may find further information about STC work in Bashkortostan here.

Last update 28. March, 2010