

Examples of STC Projects

On these pages you may find information about the projects being in progress and completed projects of our Steinbeis Transfer Center on promotion of economic development and regional development. Only selected examples of the projects are mentioned here. The entire list may be provided upon your request.

Project partners are German and international organizations dealing with the promotion of economic development, ministries, chambers of commerce and industry or public and legal administrations.

to examples

Special:

Fostering R&D in Danube Region: Danube-INCO.NET

- Networking
- Financing
- Project Development

Last update 08. March, 2015

