

Romania National Forum looks ahead

19th of December 2012: The Romanian National Forum of the EUDSR comes together in the House of Danube in Bucharest. With top-ranking guests of honor: Titus Corlatean, foreign minister of Romania and president of the National Forum and Prof. Sorin Oprescu, mayor of Bucharest. Jürgen Raizner, member of the advisory board of the National Forum strengthens the contacts at this event. Everybody agrees that the role of Romania will grow in the Danube Region. The increasing international appearance of mayor Oprescu is a very positive step in this direction. Bucharest is developing Danube projects with potential to pilot projects.

Last update 08. August, 2013